

MARYLAND COUNCIL ON ECONOMIC EDUCATION

MARYLAND COALITION FOR FINANCIAL LITERACY

2009 ANNUAL REPORT

Financial and Economic Literacy for Life in a Global Economy

Message from the Leadership

This past year has been one of opportunities and challenges. If ever students and teachers need Real life education it is now. Much emphasis in schools is spent on the 3R's. The 3 R's "reading, 'riting, and 'rithmetic are essential tools for every student to gain but they are just that; tools for learning the other knowledge and skills necessary to participate effectively in our society.

Economics and personal finance provide that 4th R—Real life education. Students who do not understand the value of investing in their human capital, who do not understand the importance of saving and investing at an early age, and who do not have the knowledge they need to be savvy consumers will be at a huge disadvantage all of their lives.

The true impact of economic illiteracy on people's lives has been very evident this past year.

The Maryland Council on Economic Education provides the opportunity for Maryland students to gain economic knowledge and skills necessary to thrive in our global economy. Thanks to our many partners and friends who enable our programs.

The Board and Staff at the Maryland Council on Economic Education and the Maryland Coalition for Financial Literacy remain committed to improving economic and financial literacy in the state. Take a few moments to look over our annual report to see how we have worked over the past year toward improving economic and financial literacy.

- Provided economics and personal finance training programs for 841 elementary and 1,912 secondary teachers who teach 224,315 students in Maryland schools.
- Council staff presented programs for 240 future teachers at Frostburg University, Hood College, John's Hopkins University, Towson University, UMBC, Stevenson University, and College of Notre Dame.
- Consulted on economics and personal finance curriculum development projects in Maryland school systems, including Anne Arundel, Baltimore, Caroline, Harford, Queen Anne's, Talbot, St. Mary's Counties, and Baltimore City.
- Coordinated training for and delivery of the Maryland/DC Stock Market Game™ for over 5,500 teams including 465 teachers and 21,096 students. Students in grades 4-12, along with college students and adults, work in teams to learn investing basics by doing research to build a portfolio of stocks and mutual funds, starting with a hypothetical $100,000 and using real-time prices to buy and sell shares on the New York, American and Nasdaq Exchanges over a ten-week period.
- Conducted Maryland's annual Economics Challenge competition for 35 teams of 11th- and 12th-grade economics students from 13 schools in Baltimore, Carroll, and Montgomery Counties plus Baltimore City and Washington, DC. Teams of four students competed in two divisions depending on the extent of their economics instruction. For each division, three rounds of written testing were followed by a quiz bowl round between the two top-scoring teams to select the one team in each division to advance to the Northeast Regional competition.
- Hosted the Northeast Regional Econ Challenge competition for 8 states (New York, Pennsylvania, Connecticut, New Hampshire, Maryland, Ohio, Michigan, and Indiana).
- Conducted Maryland's annual "A Picture is Worth a Thousand Words" poster contest. Over 1,800 students from 56 elementary and middle schools in 17 Maryland school systems submitted posters to visually demonstrate their understanding of fundamental economic concepts. 16 posters were selected for inclusion in a 2009-2010 calendar to be distributed to teachers, schools and Council supporters.
- Hosted five regional awards programs and one statewide awards program to recognize Stock Market Game™, Economics Challenge and "A Picture is Worth a Thousand Words" poster contest winners.
- Planned and executed the Council's annual golf tournament auction and raffle, raising nearly $5,000 for economic and financial education in Maryland schools.

Stock Market Game Program™

WHAT IS THE STOCK MARKET GAME PROGRAM™?

The Stock Market Game Program™ is a ten-week Internet-based simulation that helps students learn about forms of business ownership, equities markets and the importance of saving and investing to personal and national economic health. The Maryland Council on Economic Education has coordinated the training for and delivery of the Stock Market Game™ since 1986 because we believe that it is important for Maryland's children to understand the importance of equities markets in a market economy and the importance of equities in an investment portfolio.

WHAT ARE THE BENEFITS OF PARTICIPATING IN THE STOCK MARKET GAME PROGRAM™?

The simulation is a high-interest activity that allows students to practice reading and math skills in a real-world context, learn to do research via the Internet, practice critical-thinking skills and learn to work in groups toward a common goal, as well as to learn about equities markets. When we realize that the vast majority of today's students—our future workforce—will work for small businesses without retirement plans or for small to large businesses with self-directed retirement plans, we know it is critical for them to understand the basics about stock markets and to include stocks, in some form, in a retirement portfolio if they ever want to be in a financial position to retire. In short, we provide, through this simulation, a popular, high-interest learning experience that pays off for students in both now and in the future.

WHO SUPPORTS THE STOCK MARKET GAME PROGRAM™?

We are very grateful to those businesses and foundations that provide the support necessary to make this experience a reality for our children.

For the 2008-09 school year, on behalf of the teachers and children who participated in the Program, we offer our very special thanks to:

- Aberdeen Proving Ground Federal Credit Union

Maryland Coalition for Financial Literacy

FREEDOM THROUGH FINANCIAL EDUCATION

The mission of the Maryland Coalition for Financial Literacy is to ensure that Maryland high school students and adults have the knowledge needed to make informed financial decisions by pursuing the following:

- Promote the adoption of a financial literacy graduation requirement in every Maryland school system
- Work with existing organizations to increase the effectiveness of delivery and financial information to various audiences
- Create an inventory of recommended financial literacy materials and programs for teachers, children, parents, and adults

Allen Cox, Ph.D. is the Coalition's managing director. Dr. Cox has over thirty years of experience in education in Maryland and a strong belief in and commitment to financial literacy. Dr. Cox earned a Ph.D. from George Washington University in Economics and Education Policy.

A Picture is Worth a Thousand Words

NINTH ANNUAL POSTER CONTEST

Over 1,800 students from 56 elementary and middle schools in 17 Maryland school systems and Baltimore City entered this year's A Picture is Worth a Thousand Words economics poster contest.

Each student submitted a hand-drawn poster illustrating one of the following concepts:

- Scarcity
- Natural, human and capital resources
- Opportunity cost
- Specialization and interdependence
- Producers and consumers
- Goods and services

Sixteen posters were selected by our panel of judges to appear in our 2009-2010 economic concepts calendar. The 16 winning artists were recognized at our annual awards program on May 27, 2009. Each received a $50.00 U.S. Savings Bond.

Our sincere thanks are extended to the following for their support for the design, printing and distribution of the 2009-2010 calendars:

- Richmond Federal Reserve Bank, Baltimore Branch
- Consumer Credit Counseling Service of Maryland and Delaware
- Towson University College of Business and Economics
